

Dr. Marjorie Sirridge, MD Honored

On October 14, 2010, a group of more than 100 friends and colleagues joined members of The Foundation for the History of Women in Medicine at the Annual Alma Dea Morani Award presentation honoring Dr. Marjorie Sirridge, M.D.

Presenters at the 2010 Alma Dea Morani Award Presentation included (left to right) Victoria Burkhart, FHWIM Executive Director; Barbara Atkinson, M.D., FHWIM President; Dr. Marjorie Sirridge, Awardee; Christopher Crenner, M.D., Ph.D., Associate Professor and Chair History & Philosophy of Medicine; Betty Drees, M.D., Dean of the School of Medicine University of Missouri-Kansas City.

"It was an absolutely inspirational evening," shared Victoria Burkhart, Executive Director of the Foundation. "Throughout her life, Dr. Sirridge has shown that women can achieve great things without sacrificing other aspects of their lives. She is a role model for all women!"

Marjorie S. Sirridge, M.D., has long recognized the benefits of exchange and collaboration in medical education and practice. She has launched initiatives to help teachers learn from their students, and to improve opportunities for women in medicine to the benefit of their colleagues and patients. As an exemplar of her own philosophy she is also proud to serve as a role model for physicians who balance

Foundation Fellowships Call for Applications

Deadline: March 1, 2011

The Foundation will provide one $5000 grant to support research related to the history of women in medicine. Preference will be given to projects that deal specifically with women physicians or other health workers or medical scientists, but proposals dealing with the history of women's health issues may also be considered.

Happy Holidays
from The Foundation

As the holiday season, a season of great giving, quickly approaches, we hope that you will remember The Foundation for the History of Women in Medicine on your gift list this year!

Your gift to The Foundation makes it possible for us to develop and deliver initiatives that continue to promote the history of women in medicine and the medical sciences such as national awards, oral history projects, research fellowships and student scholarship support.

This is a wonderful time to remember friends and family with a contribution in their honor or memory. We will be very pleased to send an acknowledgement of your holiday gift. On behalf of all the people we serve, and the entire Foundation family, thank you for joining us this year and best wishes for a happy and healthy holiday season.
